

ENGINEERING TODAY ... FOR A GREENER TOMORROW

TAMPA BAY'S ENGINEERS WEEK BANQUET

February 24, 2012

A La Carte Event Pavilion, 4050 Dana Shores Dr, Tampa

Join the Tampa Bay Engineers Week Banquet Committee for the 62nd annual awards banquet and celebration of the engineering profession.

Keynote Speaker:

Kathy Caldwell, P.E., F.ASCE
2011 ASCE President

Kathy Caldwell, P.E., F.ASCE, president of Caldwell Cook and Associates, in Gainesville, Fla., recently completed a term as the 2011 President of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) and will continue to serve as the immediate Past President through 2012.

Within ASCE, Caldwell has served as Chair of the Strategic Planning Committee and the Committee on Student Activities. She has served on the Paraprofessional Task Committee, Educational Activities Committee, Policy Review Committee and many others. She is a member of the Construction and Structural Engineering Institutes and a Past President of the Florida Section. Caldwell is currently an adjunct professor at the University of Florida in Gainesville.

ASCE has a passion for preparing the civil engineering profession for the world of tomorrow. The Vision for Civil Engineering in 2025 and the subsequently developed Achieving the Vision for Civil Engineering in 2025: A Roadmap for the Profession mark the culmination of nearly eight years of efforts to redefine what it will mean to be an engineer in the future. During her presentation, our speaker will talk in-depth about Vision 2025 and provide an update on its three primary initiatives: Raise the Bar, Infrastructure and Sustainability.
